Christ, our Way to new Life

"I have come that they may have life and have it to the full." You couldn't get a clearer statement of intent and desire than that from anyone. The practice of our faith is about making that desire of Jesus a reality for one another. That's why he gave us his commandment to love one another. The fulfillment of that longing should be our aim in all that we do. It is the major task for every married couple, to help this other person to come to the greatest fulfillment of her/his potential. And if parents want to know what their parenting is about, they have a true statement of it in this word of Christ. Parenting is not about what they give to their children but what they help their children to become as individuals. It is also a word for every faith community this week. We can only accomplish the desire of Jesus when everyone is taking a full part. We dare not settle for anything less than the best.

Derry Diocesan Vocation Prayer
Lord Jesus Christ, gentle shepherd, you know your sheep, and you know how to reach their hearts.

Give to the people of the diocese of Derry hearts that are open to the call of the Holy Spirit.

Speak to the hearts of the (young) men of our diocese that they may hear your call to follow you and serve your people as priests.

Awaken in them the courage to answer:
'Here I am, Lord, Send me.'

St Eugene, pray for us.

St Columba, pray for us.

St John Vianney, pray for us.
