Fifth Sunday of Easter

The New Creation

Jesus said to his disciples: "I give you a new commandment: love one another; as I have loved you, you also must love one another". It is said that familiarity breeds contempt. Maybe contempt is too strong a word when we apply this statement to the command of Jesus; it is more likely to be indifference. We hear it and leave it. But this commandment, if it were to be lived out by us, would revolutionise the world. The most obvious place for living it is in marriage and family life. There continues to be far too much mediocrity in marriage and family relationships and, rather than the passionate love of Christ. This power of love is to be lived in our faith community. But again, mediocrity is more the flavour of our community than joy and gladness. The love of Christ, lived by us his followers, knows no bounds but is destined to reach the ends of the earth to heal the divisions of humanity. Fr. Johnny Doherty, C.Ss.R.
