Pentecost

Jesus said to his disciples: "I shall ask the Father and he will give you another Advocate to be with you forever." As we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit on the Church it is good to ask the questions: How do we let the Spirit be actively present? and How do we exclude the Spirit? And we should ask these in the two contexts of our homes and our parish community. The Spirit is present when we are at peace with one another; the Spirit is absent when we are divided. The Spirit is present when we are living in joy; the Spirit is absent when we are settling for dullness. The Spirit is present when we are being creative and changing; the Spirit is absent when we are trying to keep things the way they always were. The Spirit is present especially when we are building relationships of love in our homes and parish.
