Second Sunday of Advent

Prepare a way for the Lord

"Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand." These words of John the Baptist in this Sunday's Mass are sometimes used to scare people. They are another way of saying waken up and see the wonder and beauty all around you. The main way to repent is to stop taking so much for granted and begin again to have a sense of wonder at all the goodness that is in your life. A sure sign of repentance is joy. The first place to look for this is in your home and among your family. Count your blessings here and begin seeing how much you are receiving from those you love rather than all you think you are giving. This will be a wonderful preparation for the joy of Christmas. Secondly look at the community of faith you belong to and acknowledge all the gifts and graces you receive there. And give thanks.

Fr. Johnny Doherty, C.Ss.R.

Vocations
Holy Hour
for

Pray for Vocations
Just as John the Baptist answered the call to be a “voice in the wilderness” to “prepare a way for the Lord” – we pray for those in our society who are called to be the voice in the wilderness of our modern society by living their lives in service as a priest, deacon or religious.

The next monthly Holy Hour for Vocations will take place in St Eugene's Cathedral, Derry, on Friday 9th December, at 8.00pm, and will be led by the Diocesan Vocations Director, Fr Pat O'Hagan, PP Bellaghy & Greenlough. Those unable to attend are invited to follow the Service on the Cathedral webcam at: www.steugenescathedral.com
