13TH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

Jesus the Lord who gives life

Jesus said: "Why all this commotion and crying? The child is not dead, but asleep." But they laughed at him. A lovely feature of our Catholic tradition is that we can have a good sense of humour even about the most sacred things. However what we see in the Gospel today is not humour but ridicule. And there is a lot of that today about what we hold sacred. There are a lot of good jokes about the marriage relationship, for example. But there is also a lot of ridicule about it today which we should not tolerate. Young people find it difficult today to admit to going to Mass because their peers make fun of them for it. We need to find the ways of encouraging them to keep going. Our society will tolerate anything but people who treasure their faith. We need to stand by one another and let Christ be present as saviour for the world.

Fr. Johnny Doherty, C.Ss.R.

Sunday 28th June 2015

Thank you!

I want to thank you all most sincerely for the overwhelming experience of the celebration of my Golden Jubilee in the priesthood last weekend. I was just bowled over by your goodness and generosity: by the wonderful atmosphere at Sunday evening's Mass and the gathering in the Hall afterwards; by the lovely music; by the flowers and the bunting; by the kind words that were said; by the crowd that was so big I could barely greet a fraction of you; by the extraordinarily generous presentation of £8,742 and the beautiful crystal plaque with the Greenlough Cross; by the picture of the Children's memorial; not to mention Julie's masterpiece of a cake (we finished it at the bonfire on Den's Hill), and the wonderful hospitality and catering and the big card with all the signatures, and the children's own masterpiece: the Maghera Crucifixion hanging (I wonder how they guessed!). It has been an amazing few days. I'm still on a high! Thank you and God bless you all.
