31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Lord of Compassion

They all complained when they saw what was happening. "He (Jesus) has gone to stay at a sinner's house," they said. One of the lovely features of the Gospels is that Jesus had no problem with what we would call sinners. He didn't condone what they did but he had great compassion for them. The other side of that feature was that he had a lot of difficulty with good people. And he still has! He found it almost impossible to break through to them with the Good News of God's unconditional love for every person because, if they were God, they would not be like that. So, as we struggle to live out our faith through the various relationships of our lives we need to be ready for failure and be gentle with ourselves. But we also need to be very gentle with one another and become a source of encouragement for one another rather than putting one another down through criticism.

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

Addressing the church community in Thessalonica, St Paul writes "We pray continually that our God will make you worthy of his call!"

We pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, the Diaconate and Consecrated life and that all who are called by the Lord to follow him will be worthy of his call.

Indulgences for the Holy Souls.

From 12 o'clock noon on the 1st November until midnight on 2nd November all who have confessed, received Holy Communion and prayed for the Pope's intentions (one Our Father & Hail Mary, or any other prayer of one's choice), can gain one plenary indulgence by visiting a church or Oratory and there reciting one Our Father & the Apostles' Creed. This indulgence is applicable only to the souls of the departed. Confession may be made at any time within the week preceding or the week following the 1st November. Holy Communion may be received on any day from 1st-8th November.

All Souls Day

The faithful who visit a cemetery and pray for the dead may gain a plenary indulgence applicable only to the Holy Souls on the usual conditions one per day from 1st-8th November. The conditions above also apply for this.
