

Mass Times Update

Having consulted with the Parish Pastoral Councils in both Greenlough and Bellaghy, I have opted for the following schedule of Masses which will come into force on the evening of Saturday 26th November 2022.

SATURDAY

Greenlough: 5.30pm; Bellaghy: 7.00pm

SUNDAY

Greenlough: 9.00am
Ballyscullion: 10.00am
Bellaghy: 11.00am

The usual timetable of Weekday Masses will be:

BELLAGHY

Monday, Wednesday and Friday: 9.30am

GREENLOUGH

Tuesday: 9.30am; Thursday: 7.30pm

The Weekday Mass timetable may be amended occasionally. Any amendments will be announced in advance in the parish newsletters and/or on the parish websites/social media.

If possible, Month's Mind and First Anniversary Masses may be celebrated at different times, but other anniversaries will be celebrated at the scheduled weekend or weekday Masses.

This new timetable has been arranged in light of recent changes and allows for the possibility that, on occasion, there may be only one priest available to celebrate Mass in our parishes, although this would not be sustainable on a regular basis.

The Pastoral Councils will continue to discuss this aspect of parish life, including arrangements for the time, in the not too distant future, when there will be only one priest serving the people of both Greenlough and Bellaghy, without the generous assistance of the retired priests who are currently in their 80s and are helping whenever they are available to do so.

Fr. Pat O'Hagan.

The Triumph of God

Jesus said to his disciples: "When you hear of wars and revolutions, do not be frightened". Every now and again someone comes up with the scare about the end of the world. And there are always people to believe them. But that is not our way as followers of Christ. Our task is to transform the world through the power of love. There are many situations in our world that we cannot directly affect except through prayer and through exercising our power of voting in favour of peace and the rights of people. But there are situations in the world that we do affect directly, and it is there particularly that we live out our faith in Christ. The intimate relationships of marriage and family life need to be as good as we can make them and that is within our control. And the faith community to which we belong is a place in which we can make a difference by getting involved in the needs of the world around us.

Fr. Johnny Doherty, C.Ss.R.
