28th Sunday of the Year

Many are called but few are chosen

"Everything is ready. Come to the wedding." I have been at many weddings over the years and it strikes me that no matter how many you go to they are always great occasions. You never get tired of them. That's what Jesus wants for us as his people - that we would be wedding people, joyful, happy, and celebrating. In response to his word this week make a special effort to bring this sense of joy to one another, as this is a vital way to practice our faith. This is particularly important in our homes so that all who live there may know the wonder of God's love. It takes a real effort on the part of everyone to constantly create this sense of gladness, but it is well worth the effort. It is also so important in our faith community to develop this sense of freedom for one another so that others can come to know how much they are loved. Fr. Johnny Doherty, C.Ss.R.

WELL DONE TO ALL INVOLVED!!!!

Next weekend, on World Mission Sunday, Mass collections in over 120 countries will be offered to support the life-giving work of overseas missionaries. However, this direct appeal from Pope Francis, is in jeopardy. The worldwide pandemic means that less of us can physically attend Mass, resulting in less offerings in the basket. Its implications for suffering overseas communities in the months ahead will be devastating.

Please use the Special Envelope in your box for this collection.

Visit www.wmi.ie for more information.

PRAYER FOCUS

May our love for you express itself in our eagerness to do good for others.

What do you need for that prayer to be answered?

Think of some group that is working with young people in the church. How could you help that group this week?
