25TH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

The Lord of the Oppressed

Jesus said to his disciples: "You cannot be the slave both of God and of money". Thank God all of us are much better off today than we were in past generations and even better off than we ever expected to be. This brings with it a sense of security and lessens people's anxiety about the future. But it also can bring with it a sense of self-sufficiency in which we think that we are in need of no one, not even God. We become selfish, and the more we have the more we want. The challenge of the Gospel today is to be thankful for all we have and to learn to share it with those who are in need. When we become selfish with our money, we also become selfish with our time and this has a serious effect on our marriage and family relationships and the quality of our lives together becomes less loving. We also refuse to give time to building up our parish community because we are too busy or too important.

Fr. Johnny Doherty, C.Ss.R.

SAFEGUARDING SUNDAY, 18th SEPTEMBER 2022

This year's Safeguarding Sunday Mass takes place this Sunday, 18th September at 3.00pm in St Columb's Church, Waterside, Derry. We take this opportunity to thank and pray for those who have stepped up to co-ordinate safeguarding in our church so that we can ensure the protection of children and adults at risk.

SAFEGUARDING PRAYER

Holy Spirit of God,

we ask your blessing on everyone in our parish communities.

We pray a particular blessing on those whose ministry it is to ensure that the young and vulnerable are cared for and protected.

Help them and all of us to lead lives worthy of our Christian calling.

And may honesty and respect, integrity and justice be the hallmark of all our relationships.

We make this prayer in the name of Jesus Christ, our Saviour and our Brother.

Amen.
