21st Sunday of the Year

Saviour of all peoples

Jesus said: "There are those now last who will be first, and those now first who will be last". One of the basic needs of the human person is to be successful. The fulfilment of this need brings people in all kinds of directions in life. Some people invest themselves in work and their whole self-worth is associated with how successful they are there. Then they have to retire! For others it is found in the kind of home they have, or their popularity, or in sport etc. All of these are good things but when they become our reason for being able to say, "I am the best" they have led us astray. The way of Jesus puts success in love as our priority. Through love we put our beloved as number one whether that beloved is our wife/husband, our children, our community, and in so far as we do that we live with great peace and joy and inherit eternal life.

Fr. Johnny Doherty, C.Ss.R.

BISHOP EDWARD DALY

Last week, our beloved retired bishop, Edward Daly, returned to God. It has been a time to remember Bishop Daly's faithful service of God and the people of this diocese. Over the days many people shared their experiences of meeting with Bishop Edward and the kindness and compassion he showed, in actions both great and small.

It was my privilege to lead the Funeral Mass and burial rites. I thank you, the people of this diocese, for your overwhelming response to the death of Bishop Edward, for attending his wake, the liturgies which were celebrated and his funeral.

In prayer, we now entrust Bishop Edward's soul to our Eternal Father, that he may be welcomed into his Heavenly Kingdom. May he rest in peace.

+ Donal McKeown, Bishop of Derry

PRAYER FOR THOSE AWAITING EXAM RESULTS

Lord, thank you that you are with me right now.

Your love surpasses all fear.

I give you the anxiety I feel.

I surrender all my worries to you.

Clear my mind. Calm my heart.

Still my spirit. Relax my being.

When the results come, may I be satisfied that I did my best.

May whatever path I choose in life bring me happiness and give me opportunities to better the world. Amen.

Living the Sunday Liturgy - Prayer Focus

Make us one in mind and heart.

How much do you want that to happen?

With whom do you most need to be reconciled?

How can you do that this week?
