TWENTY NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Preparing for Holy Year 2025 Pilgrims of Hope

Preparing properly should begin well before the bell rings to signal the start of the Mass, arriving in good time, taking a moment of silence to allow us to step away from our busy lives, and to bring what's uppermost in our minds to the Lord as we acknowledge His presence in the Church, in the other people around us, and in ourselves. Jesus is all around us and will soon make Himself present to us on the altar, offering Himself to us in His true Body.

One very good way to prepare for Mass is to take a look at the readings beforehand. If you're very early you can read them in the missalette, or you can look them up on any number of Catholic websites in the days leading up to the weekend.
