SUNDAY 22 FEBRUARY 2026

First Sunday in Lent

Pope Leo is encouraging us all to read the Bible, to become familiar with the Word of God. Lent could be a good time to begin to do that, starting perhaps with the Gospel of Matthew. The Sermon on the Mount (Chapters 5-7) is a blueprint for Christian living. Matthew recounts Jesus' many calls to repentance as well as His repeated challenges to us to protect, promote, and deepen our faith.

We could all benefit from reading the Gospel in advance of the weekend, either alone or with family and friends.

The great Biblical scholar, St Jerome, has said that "Ignorance of the Bible is ignorance of Christ."

The Lenten Programme in honour of Sr Clare Crockett, continues on Thursday 26 February in St. Mary's Church, Bellaghy, at 7.30pm with a Prayer Night of Reflective Prayer and Discussion on "A Call to Holiness". Everyone welcome to attend or to follow via the parish webcam.

In today's gospel Jesus rebuffs the devil's temptations with the words of Scripture. Recently Pope Leo has been reminding us of the importance of reading the Bible and becoming familiar with it. It has been said that "Ignorance of the Bible is ignorance of God." We pray that our seminarians will study and love the Sacred Scriptures so that, as the future priests of our diocese, they will share and preach the Word of God in a way that enhances the lives of the people they will serve.

Anyone interested in attending the Vocations Retreat Weekend in Drumalis, Larne, 6-8 March, should contact:

Greenlough, 8 March
Ballyscullion, 22 March

"In this season of Lent, we offer up the merits of our daily sacrifices to the needs of the most vulnerable in society.

We offer them especially for the poor, the terminally ill, the lonely, the homeless and the unborn, that the Lord would see their needs and pour out his love and blessing upon them. Lord hear us".
