7th Sunday of the Year

Praise and Thanksgiving

Jesus said to his disciples: "Treat others as you would like them to treat you". This teaching of Jesus has very wide-ranging implications for our lives. These begin in the most intimate relationships of marriage and family life. If you want to have a really good marriage, treat your husband/wife with the kind of affection, passion, generosity you would want her/him to give to you. If you want to be successful as a parent, show your children the respect, gratitude, gentleness you would want them to show to you. If you want to have a vibrant parish community, get involved in building it in the ways you expect others to do so that you will have all the amenities that you and your family want. And if you want a strong relationship with God, listen to him, respond to him the ways you want him to listen and respond to you.
