TRINITY SUNDAY SUNDAY 31 MAY 2026

The Gospel story as a whole presents Christ as a transformative leader who caused tension among the political, social, economic and religious leaders of his day. He made people in power uncomfortable because he called out their unjust and oppressive actions.

Today's readings are a wake-up call to all in power, especially if they are Jewish, Christian or Muslim leaders, and in particular if they are Catholic leaders. Although the portraits of God throughout the Old Testament are oftentimes troublesome because they are violent, the God presented in today's readings is the Holy One of love and peace, whom some may call Adonai (Jewish) or Allah (Muslim). Christ and the Holy Spirit as portrayed by the Christian Scriptures are the embodiment of peace and love.

The disconnect between what world leaders hear in the Scriptures and how they are conducting their "business," cries to heaven for justice. Furthermore, those leaders who espouse global violence ought to take a good look at themselves in the mirror and ask one simple question, "How am I embodying Christ?"

The power of the Trinity has yet to be unleashed.

We pray for the men who will be charged with the task of preaching, by word and by the example of their lives, the message of John 3:16 - that "God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life."
